And Proves More Than Ever Before, the Value of Economy

All odd lots, broken sizes, remnants, etc.; good seasonable merchandise, must be cleared away to carry out our rigid policy of not carrying over from season to season.

Here we present rare savings which could not be attempted except with a reason like this in mind. Of course assortments and quantities are limited, but this is all the more important that you attend the event on the opening day.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New lot of paper paste just in at Hooker's.

Lester A. Carpenter of Merchant street, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the Roberts primary, left last night for Boston to visit friends.

Murray Donaldson and Ralph Tassie of North Hero called on friends in the city yesterday while on their way to South Woodbury, where they were called by the serious illness of Robert Tassie. The savings banks and trust companies of Barre would appreciate it very much if you would bring or send your deposit books for verification at an early date. The law requires this to be done once in five years.

Subscribers to the war chest fund are reminded that they can pay their pledges from 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m. every week-day and Monday, Wednesdays and Saturdays from 7 to 8 p. m., at Red Cross headquarters in the school building facing the common.

Barre friends of Col. George Byrrode, recently commandant at Norwich university, will be interested to learn that he has been ordered to Camp Devens as an officer in the depot brigade. It is believed that he may be made one of the colonels of the new division forming to succeed the 76th at Devens.

Robert Wright of Seminary street, who recently qualified for enlistment in the naval reserve, has received word that he is to report for duty next Tuesday, although the point to which he is to proceed was not designated in the order. While in Burlington a few days ago to complete arrangements for enlisting, Mr. Wright met Charles L. Hoernle, a former coach and instructor at Goddard seminary, who resigned last winter to enlist in the navy. Mr. Hoernle is stationed at Hingham, Mass., and had been passing a brief furlough with friends in North Ferrisburg.

Little Jimmie Woodruff, younger son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Woodruff of Keith avenue, narrowly escaped serious injury in an accident near the Barre Savings bank corner last evening around 6:30 o'clock, when a Ford auto driven by a man named Sutor from Granville, ran into him and knocked him over. The lad, with his older brother, John, was hesitating as to whether or not they should attempt a crossing of North Main street in front of the auto. Jimmie decided for himself and as he has a weakness for wanting to be where the fun is thickest, he permitted one of the forward wheels of the car to pass over him, after the fender had knocked him down. Mr. Sutor was driving slowly and had his car under immediate control. There were plenty of people willing to carry Jimmie home and on the way to his father's office the boy exhibited a good bit of pluck. He was badly scared at first, but his injuries were confined to a few minor scratches. No one was inclined to blame the driver of the car.

Dr. W. E. Lazell of South Main street, who received notice a fortnight ago of his appointment to a captaincy in the army medical corps, received an order last evening directing him to proceed to New York July 27 to begin a special course in the Rockefeller institute. He expects to spend about six weeks at the institute before going to Petersburg, Va., where he is to be stationed at Camp Lee. Dr. Lazell is one of four Barre physicians who have been commissioned. Dr. J. W. Stewart, city health officer, is awaiting a call. Dr. Lazell expects to close his affairs immediately.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. C. Philip Curtis of Sharon, Mass., arrived last night to spend two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cave, sr.

H. W. Norris, who has been employed in Springfield, Mass., for several months, passed through the city to-day while on his way home to Granville.

Elbert S. Brigham of St. Albans Town arrived in the city last evening to attend the semi-annual gathering of the Vermont Veterinary Medical society.

Melville D. Robinson of the U. S. S. Wisconsin is having a furlough, which he is spending with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Dewey. Another sister, Mrs. Gordon of Worcester, Mass., accompanied him here.

Word has been received by friends in Barre announcing the death of Mrs. Sarah Pratt, mother of Mrs. Herbert Young, at their home in Medford, Mass. Both Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Young were former residents of Barre, and the death of the former will be much regretted by her many friends here. Mrs. Pratt had been in failing health for a few months, but her last illness was of about eight days' duration.

Dr. W. E. Lazell of South Main street, who received notice a fortnight ago of his appointment to a captaincy in the army medical corps, received an order last evening directing him to proceed to New York July 27 to begin a special course in the Rockefeller institute. TALK OF THE TOWN

Farmers, read Shea's shoe adv. Mrs. O. I. Gregory and son, Paul, and Mrs. Velma Holmes of Boston are visiting at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. James S. Duncan of 12 Eastern avenue.

Charles Falconer, the well known South Barre milk dealer, left the city this forenoon for Montreal, where he expects to apply for enlistment in the Canadian army.

Chief C. B. Gladding of the local fire department has been advised that the state firemen's association is to hold its annual convention in Winoski around the middle of September. Forenoon and afternoon sessions are to be followed by a banquet in the village hall in the evening.

Paul Lascor of Webster avenue, who has been employed as a repair man at the Barre garage on Jefferson street, completed his duties in that capacity last evening. Mr. Lascor has accepted a position as a traveling salesman for the Lorillard Tobacco company through this state, the position his brother, Charles Lascor, held previous to his enlistment in the aviation branch of the service. Mr. Lascor expects to begin his new duties within a few days.

Fred W. Sutor of Bolster avenue, secretary-treasurer of the quarryworkers' international association, left last night for Washington, D. C., where he is to represent organized labor of Vermont at a conference of labor and employers to be held under the auspices of the federal employment bureau. Mr. Sutor's appointment to the position of Vermont representative followed an urgent invitation in which the government asked that the state branch of the American Federation of Labor be officially represented. The conference opens tomorrow.
